RE: MUR 6668

Dear Mr. Jordan,

Apologies for the delayed response, I was under the impression that our campaign only needed one response to your inquiry. I would like to incorporate the entire response that Mr. Jay Chen provided earlier, and further emphasize a few points.

As the Treasurer of record, I can attest that no one on our campaign staff had any contact with Mailing Pros Inc. (MPI), or directed that MPI share any information with any other party. We never had a contract with MPI, were billed by them, or sent them any direct payments, because they simply were not considered to be one of our vendors. They were a sub-contractor used by one of our mail consultants.

Until this complaint was lodged we had not paid attention to which mail houses were printing our mail, since we have used several mail consultants who chose their own bulk mailing service. We had no input in that matter. Furthermore, we have never directed our mail consultants to ask their mail house to share information with any third parties. The complaint lodged by the Royce campaign is without merit and should be dismissed. Thank you for your time, and please do not hesitate to contact me if you have any additional questions.

Sincerely,

Samuel Liu, ESQ.
